

Nina in Focus Magazine:

Indispensable!

7 reasons to live on two continents

Nina Franoszek, actress

(„Körner und Köter“, Sat.1, „The Pianist“, Roman Polanski)

- 1 ... because sometimes you have to go away in order to come to.
- 2 ... because I try to improve the German American Friendship, since California belongs now to Austria.
- 3 ... because I love to build bridges but not global bridging.
- 4 ... because my passion for film started in Berlin and I can proceed it today in Hollywood.
- 5 ... because it amazes me how American audiences react to German film and theater culture.
- 6 ... because California grapes are just as great as Beelitzer asparagus.
- 7 ... because the world is much smaller today and I find it essential to understand the different cultures.
